

2010 Editorial Calendar

Our topics include a variety of general-interest themes about life on the coast:

Oregon Coast publishes articles of interest to residents, visitors, and everyone who loves the coast.

- Coastal History
- Special happenings
- Coastal Cuisine
- Profiles of notable coastal residents, including artists and entrepreneurs
- Favorite camping and picnicking spots
- Hiking Trails
- Beachcombing adventures
- Backroads and byways
- Community profiles
- Weekend getaways
- Nature and marine science

Jan/Feb 2010

- Fireside reading: history stories about the Coast
- Great old resorts
- Giants & everything at Seaside

Mar/April 2010

- Mile-by-Mile Guide
- NOAA comes to Newport
- Coastal gardening: protecting the ocean
- Oyster farms & fabulous oyster recipes
- Oregon Coast resort spas

May/June 2010

- Profile: Reedsport
- Garibaldi's 100th birthday
- Japanese bombsite trail (Brookings)
- Best Beaches--Yes, Virginia, you can wear a bikini
- Oregon Institute of Marine Biology (Charleston)
- How to clean fresh crab

July/Aug 2010

- RV Guide to the Oregon Coast
- Cape Foulweather, Otter Rock
- Richard Luce's Depoe Bay
- Aquarium Sleepovers
- Kayaking - get up close and personal with nature

Sep/Oct 2010

- Profile: Brookings
- Planning your Oregon Coast Wedding
- Building the Astoria-Megler Bridge
- Clamshell Railroad (Long Beach, WA)
- The Boats are In (buying fresh fish (salmon, tuna & halibut) from the boats.

Nov/Dec 2010

- Profile: Lincoln City
- Holiday Celebrations & Christmas concerts
- Where to see the best and brightest holiday lights
- Giving Thanks, community Thanksgiving celebrations
- Holiday shopping: Where to get those special gifts.

The logo for Oregon Coast, featuring the words "OREGON" and "COAST" in a stylized, blue, serif font. The "O" in "OREGON" is large and overlaps with the "C" in "COAST".